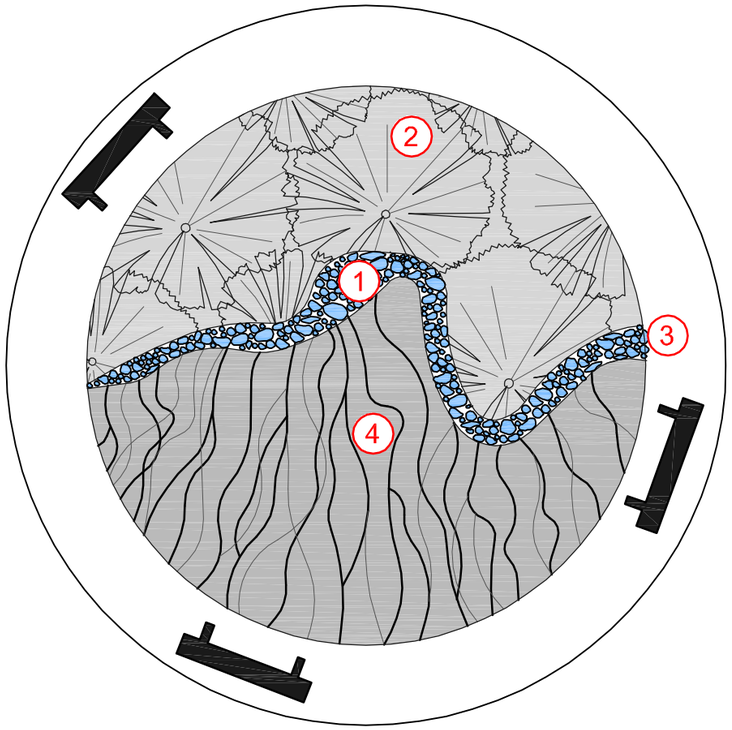
Option 2.



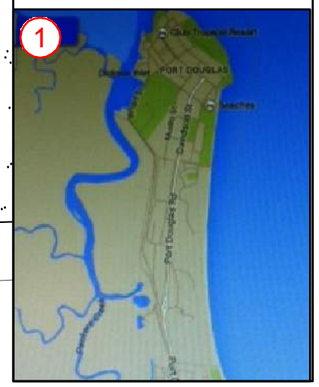
Option 2: Represents the rainforest on the Western side of the prominent Port Douglas waterway (Dicksons Inlet), while the ever-changing water movement of the Coral sea is symbolized on the Eastern side.

Material: Etched concrete to show water movement and tropical rainforest plantings and pebbles set in concrete for middle 'waterway'

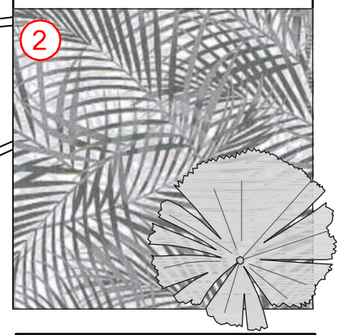
Note: All colours are subject to Main Roads approval

Indicative design images

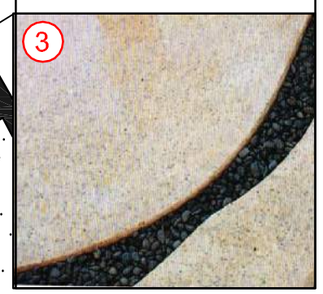
PD waterway patterns

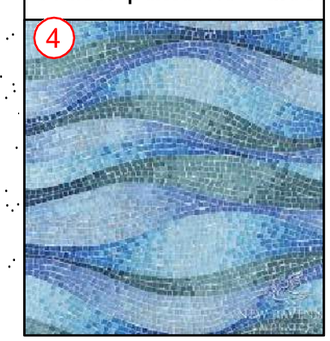


Fan Palm patterns



Stones set in concrete for centre





Water patterns - tiles