

RADF - Committee Member Nomination

Regional Arts Development Fund

Thank you for your interest in being a member of Douglas Shire Council's Regional Arts Development Fund Committee.

The following provides an overview of RADF, how the program is delivered in the Shire, and the responsibilities of Committee members. If you have any questions please telephone Council's RADF Liaison Officer on 07 4099 9444 or email enquiries@douglas.qld.gov.au.

What is the Regional Arts Development Fund?

The Queensland Government recognises local governments as key partners and co-investors in Queensland's arts and culture and local governments play a significant role in supporting arts and culture in their communities through:

- Supporting and implementing arts and cultural programs, activities and events
- Providing funding to local arts and cultural practitioners and organisations
- Providing employment for arts and cultural workers
- Cultural planning for increased live ability and economic growth
- Ownership and management of local cultural facilities such as libraries, galleries and performing arts centres.

The Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) is a Queensland Government and Douglas Shire Council partnership to support local arts and culture in regional Queensland. RADF promotes the role and value of arts, culture and heritage as key drivers of diverse and inclusive communities and strong regions and invests in local arts and cultural priorities, as determined by local communities. RADF is a flexible fund, enabling local councils to tailor RADF programs to suit the needs of their communities.

What are the key objectives of RADF?

RADF supports arts and cultural activities that:

- Contribute value to local communities
- Engage local communities
- Deliver local priorities
- Deliver Queensland Government priorities including encouraging safe and inclusive communities, building regions, stimulating economic growth and innovation and increasing workforce participation.

How were our local priorities determined?

Douglas Shire Council's locally identified priorities are determined through community feedback from Douglas Shire Council's Corporate Plan 2019-2024, previous Arts Strategy 2017-2021 and incoming Strategy for Arts, Culture & Creativity 2024-2029.

The RADF Committee – Terms of Reference

The RADF Committee Terms of Reference include:

- Reflects the diverse arts, culture and geography of our Shire;
- Voluntarily promoting the RADF program throughout the arts and cultural community;
- Assessing RADF grant applications and recommending funding to Council; and
- Network with industry contacts and organisations for the promotion of RADF programs

The committee can also be asked to consult on directional strategies and policy for the arts strategy. The RADF Committee may consist of up to five community members and up to two Councillors. The Committee is assisted by Council's RADF Liaison Officer, who administers the local RADF program.

Who can be a RADF Committee member?

Douglas Shire residents with an active interest, involvement or experience in one or more of the following areas are eligible to be members of the RADF Committee.

- Community Arts and Cultural Development
- Dance
- Music
- Museums and Cultural Heritage
- Festivals
- Visual Arts
- Craft
- Design
- Theatre
- Writing
- Multimedia

How will nominations be assessed?

RADF Committee members will be selected on their:

- Ability to demonstrate an active interest, involvement or experience in at least one of the above areas;
- Knowledge of the arts and cultural community in the Douglas Shire;
- Capacity to assess grant applications in accordance with RADF Guidelines and assessment criteria in a confidential, impartial manner;
- Availability to attend meetings at least twice a year;
