

REGIONAL ARTS DEVELOPMENT FUND GRANT GUIDELINES

OVERVIEW

Before you begin:

Please review the Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) Grant Guidelines and discuss your RADF Project plans with the Douglas Shire Council RADF Liaison Officer prior to applying.

Council RADF Liaison Officer:

E: radf@douglas.qld.gov.au

T: 4099 9444

Consider how your proposed project aligns to the:

- Objectives of RADF
- Categories of Funding
- Locally Identified Priorities

Please note:

The assessment process may take up to three months after the closing date and this should be factored into the planning of your project.

Grants are highly competitive and endorsement will depend on available funds, the quality of applications and Council priorities.

WHAT IS THE REGIONAL ARTS DEVELOPMENT FUND (RADF)?

The Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) is a collaborative initiative between the Queensland Government, through Arts Queensland, and eligible local councils across the state.

The fund underscores the importance of arts, culture, and heritage as essential elements that drive diversity, inclusivity, and regional strength.

For more information about other programs and opportunities offered by Arts Queensland, you can visit their website at www.arts.qld.gov.au.

If you have any inquiries specifically related to the Douglas RADF, you can reach out to the Arts and Culture Officer who is the designated RADF liaison officer for the Douglas Shire Council, by calling 07 4099 9422 or emailing radf@douglas.qld.gov.au

OBJECTIVES OF RADF

- Support local artists and arts and cultural activity to deliver value for local communities
- Provide opportunities for local communities to participate in arts and cultural activities
- Invest in locally-determined priorities delivered through arts and cultural activity
- Contribute towards current government priorities.

WHAT DOES OUR LOCAL RADF PROGRAM LOOK LIKE?

Our local RADF program is delivered through a community grants program and Council initiated projects:

RADF Community Grants Program for:

- Artists or arts and cultural workers for professional development activities, new works or projects that align with Council's identified local priorities
- Professional organisations and community groups for arts and cultural activities, projects or events that align with Council's identified local priorities

RADF Council initiated projects for:

- Public Art & Placemaking – supporting the strategic development and delivery of public art and place making to the Douglas Shire
- Incubator programs for artists and creatives who are also Young people, First Nation people, People with disability
- Cross-regional and multi-Shire arts projects supported by the Regional Arts Services Network (RASN)
- RADF committee training and professional development

Douglas Shire Council acknowledges the traditional Country of the Eastern Kuku Yalanji Peoples and the Djabugay Nation People of the coastal areas and rainforest of the Douglas Shire.

We recognise that these have always been and continue to be places of cultural and spiritual significance.

We acknowledge and cherish the important contribution made by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to the Douglas Shire community, and pay respects to their Elders – past, present and emerging.

LOCALLY IDENTIFIED PRIORITIES

Council's locally identified priorities are informed by community feedback during the development of Douglas Shire Council's Corporate Plan 2025-2030 and the incoming Arts & Cultural Action Plan.

Priority	Objective
Connecting to Place	1 We elevate First Nations voices and storytelling, acknowledging and celebrating the sharing of their Culture through all modes of creative expression.
	2 We support the development and promotion of cultural events and festivals that showcase First Nations art, performances, and traditions, providing platforms for community and visitor participation and engagement.
	3 We embrace the multicultural essence, history and heritage of Douglas and the various identities and stories that help shape the region's sense of place as the region continues to grow and evolve.
	4 We support and encourage projects that allow individual creatives to explore the diverse and evolving narratives that shape their own sense of place.
	5 We encourage creative projects and initiatives that empower our communities to express their own unique connection to place particularly in relation to public art and placemaking.
Vibrant Places &amp; Spaces	1 We prioritise the installation of dynamic and thought-provoking public artworks that enhance the cultural vibrancy and delivery of identity to our communities.
	2 We raise the profile of Douglas as a creative community and destination, home to high calibre artists and creatives who are valued, recognised and supported.
	3 We activate public spaces and strengthen cultural precincts to support vibrant, dynamic, and culturally rich spaces that attract and engage our community.
	4 We support initiatives that utilise arts, culture and creativity to improve social connectivity, enhance local pride and encourage increased stewardship of the built or natural environment.
	5 We seek projects and activities that support the development of accessible community spaces, cultural infrastructure, projects and events for arts creation, rehearsal and showcasing.

LOCALLY IDENTIFIED PRIORITIES

Priority	Objective
Eco-Creativity &amp; Sustainability	1 We recognise the significance of our landscape and World Heritage listed environment as a source of inspiration for artistic expression and community connection.
	2 We position the region as a leader in eco-cultural activities to underscore council's commitment to supporting a resilient, sustainable economy that values its World Heritage listed environments.
	3 We support environmentally conscious art events and experiences aligned with the region's eco-accredited status.
	4 We support creatives that utilise sustainable artistic practises and activities that contribute to a more environmentally conscious society.
	5 We acknowledge the transformative power of art to inspire positive change and activate creative solutions to local and global environmental challenges.
Collaboration &amp; Advocacy	1 We pursue opportunities, strategic partnerships and external investment to develop and expand cultural infrastructure, assets, and experiences available to Douglas.
	2 We strengthen the capacity and sustainability of local arts organisations and creative enterprises through capacity-building initiatives, collaborative projects and networking opportunities.
	3 We strengthen Douglas' creative ecosystem by collaborating with and advocating for local designers, artists, creative entrepreneurs, artisans and cultural practitioners.
	4 We foster and grow relationships with cultural tourism operators, community stakeholders, businesses, arts organisations, and with all levels of Government, to ensure arts, culture and creativity are platformed as essential components to a rich economy.
	5 We pro-actively engage with these stakeholders to build strategic alliances that promote the arts, attract funding, influence policies, and secure resources and relationships beneficial to the creative economy in Douglas.

ARTIST ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for RADF funding, applicants must meet the Artist Eligibility criteria

A separate Eligibility Checklist must be completed by each artist who will be paid salaries, fees or allowances from the RADF grant. This checklist is for the applicant only. If you have additional artists engaged in your project, you will need to upload a separate checklist for each artist with your application.

The purpose of the RADF Program is to support professional and emerging professional artists and arts workers to practise excellent art for and with communities for mutual development.

This checklist has been developed to ensure that the status of artists as 'professional' and 'emerging professional' is clearly identified.

The applicant responses to the questions below determine their status as an artist in regard to the RADF Program.

You need to tick any three or more of the artistic merits below to qualify as an artist with a professional or emerging professional status. If you cannot select a minimum of three of the artistic merits, you do not meet the eligibility requirements as a professional or emerging artist who can be funded by the RADF program. In this case please contact your local RADF Officer to discuss alternative funding sources to support your arts activity/project

Artist Eligibility Checklist - Applicant must tick at least three artistic merits:

- ☐ I have professional arts and/or cultural qualifications
- ☐ I have an Australian Business Number (ABN) and have provided this.
- ☐ I have devoted significant time to arts practice.
- ☐ I have been recognised as a professional by peers.
- ☐ I have held public exhibitions or given public performances (not as part of a competition).
- ☐ I have work held in public collections.
- ☐ I have won important national and/or international prizes or awards.
- ☐ I have held public discussions and/or have had articles written about my work.
- ☐ I have been commissioned or employed on the basis of art skills and/or earning income from sales of art work
- ☐ I am a member of a professional association (or associations) as a professional artist.
- ☐ I am an artist whose artistic or cultural knowledge has been recognised as professional by peers or the cultural community.
- ☐ I am an artist whose artistic or cultural knowledge has developed through oral traditions.

BUDGET

Available Funding

Eligible applicants may apply for up to $10,000 (GST Exclusive) for their RADF project.

The scale of Council's investment in each RADF partnership is dependent on the funds available to the RADF program, the RADF Advisory Committee's funding recommendations, and the endorsement by the Mayor and Councillors at an Ordinary Council Meeting.

Applicants cannot be guaranteed funding nor guaranteed to receive the full amount requested.

Project Budget

Applications are assessed on their capacity to demonstrate sound financial planning, partnership capacity and it is compulsory to include a comprehensive budget using the template on the application form.

- Ensure your budget estimates are as accurate as possible - inflated budget claims may affect the funding decision for your activity
- Account for all costs of your activity - expenses and income; monetary and voluntary, this includes all items listed in the income column as in-kind
- List all forms of income, including any in-kind, and other grants you have applied for
- Mark an asterix (*) beside grants which have already been approved
- Indicate the amount of the RADF grant that will go towards any expenditure in the column RADF Component Column
- The project budget table is to include the cash/financial component only
- The value of in-kind assistance is to be recorded in Project Partnerships – Non Financial (In-kind) Component table
- Indicate the amount of the RADF grant that will go towards any expenditure in the column titled RADF Grant Breakdown
- In the space provided, include the total amount you are seeking from RADF as income
- Ensure the income and expenditure columns balance
