BACKGROUND

Mossman State High School conducts an annual Awards Presentation acknowledging and celebrating students' academic, cultural and sporting achievements, and outstanding leadership and citizenship.

In 2019, 2020 and 2021 Douglas Shire Council has financially supported these awards as a gold sponsor.

The event will be held during school hours, and it is anticipated that family, friends and the community will be invited to attend, subject to the Chief Health Officer's advice at the time. The official program will be emailed to parents and photos from the event will be included in the school newsletter.

COMMENTS

Event sponsors will be acknowledged in the program as follows:

- Bronze – less than $200
- Silver – less than $500
- Gold - $500 and over

In the attached letter of request, the School acknowledges Council's generous support in the past and understands many businesses suffering financially due to the impacts of COVID-19 may not be able to provide sponsorship this year.

PROPOSAL

The proposal is for Council to:

FINANCIAL/RESOURCE IMPLICATIONS

The sponsorship amount will be provided from the 2022-2023 Operational Budget for People & Community Services.

The risk of granting sponsorships to recipients' ineligible under Council's general grants program is that of setting a precedent for other ineligible applicants to apply for funding and would be in breach with Council's policy. This risk is mitigated by assessing all applicants equally against consistency with Council's corporate and operational objectives and strategies.
