EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Council has been approached by the Queensland Small Business Commissioner (QSBC) to join the Small Business Friendly Councils (SBFC) initiative.

The QSBC is requesting Councils demonstrate their commitment to being mindful of small businesses, their issues and priorities when making decisions for the local community by signing up to a Charter as a “Small Business Friendly Council”.

The Charter is a non-legally binding set of commitments which councils can agree to in support of a prosperous small business sector within their community.

Small businesses are at the heart of the Douglas economy and Council’s support for the sector is recognised in Douglas Shire Council’s Economic Development Strategy 2021-2024.

Council Officers have reviewed the Charter and assessed the benefits and implications of being involved.

BACKGROUND

The SBFC initiative recognises local Councils that are actively supporting small businesses in their region and helping small businesses recover and build resilience following disasters and economic challenges.

Small businesses are at the heart of the Queensland economy and regional communities. They create local jobs, grow the local economy, and provide essential goods and services but just as importantly, small businesses help create attractive, liveable communities. They foster civic pride and help attract people and investment into the area. In the face of unprecedented natural disasters and the economic effects of the COVID-19 global pandemic, it is vital that local Councils support their small businesses to survive and thrive.

Douglas Shire’s Economic Profile (.id 2020), shows that the Douglas Shire has 1377 locally owned businesses, over which 97% are small businesses.

Top five industry sectors:

1. Construction and Trades
2. Agriculture, Forestry (includes horticulture and landscaping) and Fishing
3. Rental, Hiring (includes property management) and Real Estate Services
4. Accommodation and Food Services
5. Professional, Scientific and Technical Services

COMMENT

The Douglas Shire Council's Economic Development Strategy 2021-2024 and core remit of several Council departments largely covers off on the services/functions outlined in the new Queensland Government initiative, however by signing up to the new program Council agrees to:

- Communicate and engage with small business;
- Raise the profile and capability of small businesses;
- Support small business resilience and recovery;
- Simplify administration and regulation for small business (red tape reduction);
- Ensure fair procurement and prompt payment terms for small businesses;
- Develop and promote place-based programs for small businesses;
- Promote and showcase small businesses; and
- Measure and report on our performance.

Further details on these commitments are set in the Charter itself (Attachment 1).

Council Officers recommend that Council join the Charter. Key benefits of doing so include:

1. Supports the delivery of the Douglas Shire Economic Development Strategy 2021-2024.
2. Demonstrates Council's commitment to engage proactively and effectively with small businesses, particularly in response to COVID-19.
3. Recognises the importance of, and the value, that small businesses bring to the region.
4. Marketing opportunity to retain existing small businesses in the Douglas Shire.
5. Access to collective marketing opportunities promoted by Queensland Government through the initiative.
6. Enhanced promotion of the Douglas Shire to new small businesses looking to establish or relocate in the area.
7. Potentially increases communication and information sharing across Council departments in delivering on the commitments in the Charter.

A ceremonial signing event involving the Commissioner, Maree Adshead, may be arranged to launch the initiative if Council agrees to join.

There is also an opportunity to sign the Charter in partnership with the Douglas Chamber of Commerce and many of the tools will be made available to the Chamber and other advocacy bodies for dissemination to their members.

PROPOSAL

The proposal that Council:

1. Agrees to join the Queensland Government's Small Business Friendly Councils initiative and signs the Small Business Friendly Councils Charter; and
2. Delegates authority under Section 257 of the Local Government Act 2009 to the Chief Executive Officer to deal with any matters arising from the implementation of the Charter.

FINANCIAL/RESOURCE IMPLICATIONS

There are no financial costs associated with signing up to the Charter however within the Charter are several requirements Council would be encouraged to address, meet and report on which could require some level of resourcing/administration.

Time would be required from Council's Tourism and Economic Development Officers to oversee implementation and annual reporting. This can be accommodated within existing resources.

RISK MANAGEMENT IMPLICATIONS

Whilst not legally binding, if Council joins the Charter there would be an expectation within the small business community that Council would actively seek to deliver on the commitments contained in it. There is potentially a reputation risk to Council if these community expectations are not met. The risk is considered low as Council is already delivering on many of the commitments through its existing interaction with small businesses.

Noting that although Council may already be undertaking many of the actions/services and support listed in the Charter, by not signing up, there is a risk that the local business community, Chamber of Commerce and industry groups may inadvertently label Council as unfriendly or unsupportive of small business.

SUSTAINABILITY IMPLICATIONS

Economic: Signing the Charter will likely enhance the business profile of Council, which recognises the importance and role small businesses play in developing and diversifying our economy, while also increasing our resilience.

Environmental: Nil

Social: An enhanced business profile will likely lead to new small businesses looking to establish or relocate in the area. Small businesses create local jobs, grow the local economy, and provide essential goods and services but just as importantly, small businesses help create attractive, liveable communities. They also foster civic pride and help attract people and investment into the area.
